

2023 – 2024 Grant Program Overview and Instructions

Our History

ASU Women and Philanthropy was formed in 2002 by a group of women committed to becoming advocates and philanthropic supporters of the university. Since then, ASU Women and Philanthropy has grown dramatically — in membership, influence, and impact. To date, the organization retains more than 260 investors and has contributed more than $4.8 million to ASU in the form of 106 various grants. We will continue a tradition of significant impact on the critical initiatives of ASU as a New American University.

ASU Women and Philanthropy’s collective voice is formed by each investor who makes an annual contribution to the Women and Philanthropy Pooled Fund. Each year, investors decide how to distribute their funds among university initiatives and scholarship programs that support ASU’s students and faculty in transcending boundaries, identifying, and taking on new challenges and driving innovative solutions.

There is no priority or preference given to proposals that focus, support, or align with female oriented programs. For more information about the ASU Women and Philanthropy program please visit the website at: giveto.asu.edu/womenandphilanthropy

Grant Evaluation Criteria

1. Strength of alignment in support of the ASU Charter.

ASU Charter

ASU is a comprehensive public research university, measured not by whom we exclude, but rather by whom we include and how they succeed; advancing research and discovery of public value; and assuming fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and overall health of the communities it serves.

2. Demonstration of the following attributes:

- Project Initiative Leadership & Staffing: Has appropriate and qualified faculty, staff and students with experience that is relevant to successfully complete the project while exhibiting strong team coordination, communication, and relationships.
- Administrative Support and Accountability: Has support from ASU and departmental leadership, a detailed and adequate budget, appropriate plans, timeline and tools for effective evaluation, and sustainable funding for the future success of the project.

Grant Writing Suggestions for Consideration

- Be sure your grant proposal tells a compelling and powerful story of the need/use/impact of your request.
- To appeal to a large and varied audience, you should incorporate a balance of statistical impact as well as the “human” impact stories.
- Avoid academic and/or research technical terms and jargon as much as possible. If necessary, please make sure it is defined.
- Remember your audience for this grant. ASU Women and Philanthropy is an intelligent community audience with a wide variety of age, experience, knowledge and interests but they are not experts in your field.
- Keep your grant title short and simple but make sure it accurately describes the program request. The title of your grant is how your grant proposal will be referred to throughout the evaluation process, so you want it to be appealing but recognizable.
